REMEMBERING THE LIFE OF MR. JERRY KANE

HON. MICHAEL CLOUD

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 2, 2020

Mr. CLOUD. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the memory of Mr. Jerry Kane, a giant in the Corpus Christi community, who passed away on September 24th, 2020. A prominent businessman, public servant, and family man, Jerry was well-known and well-loved in our part of Texas. His family emigrated here after World War II from Czechoslovakia, where his parents survived the Holocaust and fought for the freedom of their people.

Jerry spent many years in the family meat-packing business, and during his time as President and CEO, he moved the company forward through innovation and pioneering new technologies. He was also a tremendous public servant for both the city of Corpus Christi and the state of Texas, serving on the Regional Water Task Force, the Governors Committee for Disaster Recovery and Renewal, and the Texas Board of Human Services.

Most importantly, Jerry was a devoted family man. He especially loved spending time with his grandchildren, and was known for being friendly, caring, and always helpful. I offer my condolences to his family and friends as they grieve the loss of a great man. He will be fondly remembered by all.

CONGRESSIONAL COMMENDATION HONORING HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

HON. LUCY MCBATH

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 2, 2020

Mrs. MCBATH. Madam Speaker, I rise today in honor of Hispanic Heritage Month. Every year from September 15 to October 15, the history and culture of Americans who are from or have ancestors from Spain, Mexico, the Caribbean, and Central and South America is recognized and celebrated. This observation was first established as Hispanic Heritage Week under President Lyndon Johnson in 1968 and President Ronald Reagan expanded the observance to a full month in 1988. This thirty-day period encapsulates many celebrations of independence for Latin American countries. September 15 is the anniversary of independence for Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, and Nicaragua. Mexico and Chile also celebrate their independence days on September 16 and September 18.

Our great nation would not be the same without the profound influence of Hispanic Americans across the country. Men and women from numerous countries have come to the United States in search of a better life for themselves and their families. In turn, their contributions have brought new ideas, new cuisines, new cultures to us all, and their presence here has created a more prosperous nation for all Americans. Guided by the promise of freedom and the chance to participate in the unique American experiment in democracy, some of these individuals arrived with nothing but the clothes on their back and the hope of a better tomorrow. Hispanic Americans have had influence on practically every part of American history, from politics to sports to sciences. Every day I am proud of their countless contributions to our country's story, and I would like to take this month to honor the crucial role that Hispanic Americans play in our society, and in Georgia's Sixth Congressional District in particular.

The Hispanic community in Georgia is vibrant and continues to grow significantly. I am proud to stand up and fight for the men and women who have contributed so much to our communities each day. Hispanic Americans help contribute to what makes this nation remarkable, and I am honored to lift up the voices of those who have selflessly dedicated their lives to building up themselves, their community, and this country. During these unprecedented times, we must work harder than ever to respect and encourage the diversity of our nation. I am routinely impressed by spirit of service and leadership displayed by Hispanic Americans in my district who work hard to give back to their own communities. Their work should be recognized every day, but particularly during Hispanic Heritage month. Therefore, I am honored to highlight three professionals who deserve special recognition: Gilda "Gigi" Pedraza, Santiago Marquez, and Vanessa Kosky.

Gilda "Gigi" Pedraza and her team at the Latino Community Fund—Georgia (LCF Georgia) as they advocate for the Latino community, work to increase civic participation, provide immediate relief to the most vulnerable communities and build grassroots organizations. Gigi has over 20 years of experience working for both nonprofit and for-profit spaces as a social entrepreneur. In 2018, she was the recipient of the NFL Hispanic Heritage Leadership award and was recognized as a Woman of Inspiration by the Atlanta Dream. In the same year, she was named one of the 50 Most Influential Latinos in Georgia. Gigi has participated on numerous boards including the Center for Pan-Asian Community Services and the Feminist Health Center. She is also a member of the ARC Global Voices Panel. Additionally, Gigi was the Georgia Awardee of the TUMI USA Entrepreneur Award, which recognizes Peruvian immigrants for their civic contributions. Gigi's roots are from Lima, Peru and she currently resides in Atlanta, Georgia.

Santiago Marquez is the CEO of the Latin American Association (LAA). Marquez has held many impressive positions, including the Director of Employment and Housing for the Latin American Association, which was the first housing department to focus on Hispanics in Atlanta. He was also the Director of Latino Outreach at the Boys and Girls Clubs of America. He began working with the Georgia Hispanic Chamber of Commerce in 2008 and has since served as President and CEO. In 2014, Santiago received an award from the National Diversity Council. He has served on multiple boards across Atlanta, including the Aurora Theatre and the WellStar Atlanta Community Board. He is also an alumnus of Leadership Atlanta and the Buckhead Business Leadership Class. Santiago was born in Cuba but now lives in Atlanta with his wife and two daughters.

Vanessa Kosky was just recently appointed to be an associate judge of the city of Doraville, and she will be the city's first Latina judge. A graduate of John Marshall Law School, she was admitted to the State Bar of Georgia in October of 2007. She is also a member of the Georgia Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, and the American Immigration Lawyer Association. Vanessa has worked as the owner of her general practice law firm for criminal defense, family law, and immigration defense since 2009. She was a recognized mentor in the Georgia State Bar's Transition into the Practice of Law Program for many years and has been recognized for her work by the Atlanta Legal Aid Society and the Gwinnett Pro Bono Project. During her many years practicing the law, she has also participated in several teaching engagements in both English and Spanish language courses. Vanessa lives in Tucker and continues to represent and speak up for people in her community every day.

It is my distinct honor and privilege to recognize three of the many Hispanic Americans who work hard every day to make a difference in the lives of others in Georgia's Sixth Congressional District. As we continue to celebrate the observation of Hispanic Heritage Month, may we recommit to the spirit of service demonstrated by these individuals and the many others whose stories have yet to be told. On behalf of myself, the Sixth Congressional District of Georgia, and the United States House of Representatives, I am proud to join in the celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month. In telling the stories of community members like Gigi, Santiago, and Vanessa, we celebrate the power of our Hispanic community in Georgia. As a representative of our state, I will continue to champion their values of strength, service, and patriotism every day.

HONORING JONATHAN "J.T."
TENNANT

HON. EARL L. "BUDDY" CARTER

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 2, 2020

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor 20-year veteran harbor pilot Jonathan "J.T." Tennant of Brunswick, Georgia, who played a pivotal role in ensuring the safety of all crewmembers aboard the Golden Ray carrier when it shipwrecked over a year ago on September 8, 2019.

If you visit St. Simons Island in Georgia's First District, it's hard to miss the Golden Ray, which is a 656-foot-long car carrier that remains capsized on the St. Simons Sound.

As the investigation into the incident by the U.S. Coast Guard and the National Transportation Safety Board continues, we've been able to gain valuable insight from crewmembers and others involved.

Although he had steered a city block-sized cargo ship from the Brunswick River to the St. Simons Sound several thousand times, nothing could have prepared J.T. for what happened the morning of September 8. The Golden Ray was sailing normally, but the rudder and the propeller came up out of the water to where J.T. had no operational control of the vessel and it started capsizing rapidly.

He endured flames melting the steel and smoke emanating airboxes the entire length of the ship. A testament to his extensive experience piloting more than 5,000 ships in and out of the Port of Brunswick, J.T. drove the Golden Ray as far up on the Sound as possible that day to ensure all 23 mariners aboard were saved and rescued.

When you see the giant cargo ship in the sound and realize there was no loss of life, it is nothing short of a miracle and a testament to the hard-working crew—including J.T.

Although it is an unfortunate situation, I am thankful for the courage and determination J.T. and the entire crew displayed that day.

HONORING THE 75TH ANNIVERSARY

Ms. SLOTKIN. Madam Speaker, today, I rise to celebrate the 75th anniversary of VFW Post 334 in Oxford, Michigan.

Since its founding, VFW Post 334 has served the local community in Oxford. Whether it's their shelf at the Oxford/Orion FISH food pantry, a float in the annual Christmas parade, or maintaining the local veterans' memorial, Oxford residents can count on VFW Post 334 to show up and care.

VFW Post 334 is committed to making a difference in the lives of veterans who answered the call to serve. By praying for those deployed, supporting their families at home, and honoring those who are no longer with us, VFW members strengthen the bonds that connect them back to their service.

Most recently, it was awarded the Diamond Jubilee Award, given to VFW Chapters that have demonstrated exceptional service for three-quarters of a century.

In closing, I want to thank Quartermaster Chuck Haskin, Senior Vice Commander Randy Stetson, and Post Commander Jim Hubbard for their leadership and service to the North Oakland community.

The spirit of VFW Post 334 can be found in the closing words of the Commander's message on their web page: "We honor the dead by helping the living."

I congratulate VFW Post 334 on a successful 75 years and wish them all the best in the next 75 years to come.

HONORING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF GOLF LEGEND, PETE DYE

HON. SUSAN W. BROOKS

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 2, 2020

Mrs. BROOKS of Indiana. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and legacy of legendary golf course designer Pete Dye. Pete, along with his wife Alice, spent a career designing some of the most difficult and well-known golf courses across this country and the world. This included Crooked Stick Golf Club in Carmel, Indiana, where they had a home on the 18th hole. The Fifth District, the State of Indiana and golfers across the nation join his family and friends to mourn the loss of Pete Dye.

Pete Dye grew up in Urbana, Ohio, and learned to play golf on a nine-hole course, Urbana Country Club, that his father, Paul Dye—a bar owner, insurance agent and postmaster—built after becoming obsessed with the game. Dye went on to become a high school state champion in Ohio and the Indiana State Amateur champion in 1958. He competed in six U.S. Amateurs and even in the 1957 U.S. Open. Along with being a talented golfer, Dye became a successful life insurance salesman however, both his and Alice's passion for golf led them to golf course design. Their first course, the nine hole El Dorado course, was built south of Indianapolis.

Dye went on to design courses in dozens of states across the country and in a dozen foreign countries. Many of his courses have been home to multiple PGA Tour events with some of the best players in the world trying to figure out the difficult slopes, sand traps and greens. Dye was responsible for the design of The Stadium Course at TPC Sawgrass in Florida, home of the iconic "island green" on the 17th hole and is one of the most famous of his designs. Dye is well known and respected throughout the entire golf community, from recreational golfers to the world's best which landed him multiple honors and awards.

Dye received the Donald Ross Award from the American Society of Golf Course Architects in 1995; the 2003 Old Tom Morris Award from the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America; 2004 Distinguished Service Award from the PGA of America; and 2005 PGA TOUR Lifetime Achievement Award. In 2008, Pete Dye became just the fifth golf architect to be inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame.

Along with his world-renowned golf courses and talent for the game of golf, Pete was also a loving husband and father. Alice, his wife and design partner of 68 years preceded him in death. He is survived by his two sons both of whom carry on the golf course design legacy: Perry and his wife Ann and P.B. and his wife Jean. He is also survived by two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. On behalf of the Fifth District I extend my deepest condolences to the Dye family. The people of Indiana and golfers throughout the entire world will miss Pete, but his courses and legacy will live on.

TRIBUTE TO JAI RAJAGOPAL

HON. JOE NEGUSE

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 2, 2020

Mr. NEGUSE. Madam Speaker, I rise today for Jai Rajagopal, a beloved son, brother, friend, and organizer who is lost to us far soon. On behalf of so many who loved Jai, I stand here to mourn.

Jai was not your ordinary young person, nor community member: he was outstanding in everything he did. When he was only-just old enough to vote, Jai dedicated himself to civic engagement, beginning with that time honored tradition of progress in our nation: voter registration. When he was 19, he worked on my campaign for Congress, where he was adored by and inspiring to every member of that team, myself included. I am a member of Congress today, because of Jai.

Ever since, Jai worked ceaselessly for candidates, for causes, for the Colorado state legislature, even running for office himself. He was seemingly never short of energy for the things he believed in. His impacts on our community will be felt for years to come.

And, let me tell you, to see Jai's passion for our nation's progress, in engaging other young folks in the democracy his generation is inheriting, it was literally awe-inspiring. He was brilliant, full-hearted, and courageous, and it was an honor to know him.

Through endless willpower and dedication, Jai moved mountains, motivated through the assured belief that people were always, always worth fighting for.

I count myself incredibly lucky to have known Jai. I share my deepest condolences with Jai's mother and brother, to whom he always credited his intelligence and motivation: my thoughts and prayers are with you.

To all that are mourning Jai, let his memory be your motivation in the continued fight for justice.

Rest peacefully, my brother.
